

Kevin Hennah's background includes many years consulting to international retail brands. In 2002 he made the transition to work with libraries on strategies to maximise productivity of space, improve presentation and maintain relevance. He has a passion for libraries and has delivered keynote presentations and workshops throughout Asia, The USA, Canada, Europe, The United Arab Emirates, New Zealand and Australia.

Maintaining Relevant Libraries

GENREFICATION | LAYOUT & SEATING | MAKEOVERS

Fusing his bigger-picture vision for libraries with inspiration drawn from retail, art galleries, museums and other cultural hubs, Kevin Hennah highlights why we must look outside our industry to drive innovation.

Exploring layout, genrefication, promotion, signage people spaces and overall image, this session is loaded with impressive, yet achievable cutting edge initiatives that can be self-managed.

As the same suggests, content is designed to challenge traditional thinking and importantly, highlight that creativity can be more powerful than funding!

- Maintaining a relevant print offering
- Layout initiatives proven to significantly increase usage stats
- Integration of technology
- Contemporary seating solutions and learning spaces
- Innovations in library-specific signage
- Contemporary display and promotional strategies
- Inspiration for self managed makeovers
